District 8 -Dary

More info on Bowman Field meeting. Possibility of looking into different flight patterns. Ben Reno-Weber said there may be another meeting about Bowman Field in a couple of months.

Streets and Sidewalks – Les

- a) Curbing at Montrose & Sydney - Les showed a picture of a curb being “flattened” out in one area to show how it could be done. He said he is still getting estimates.
- b) ADA strip replacement – Les is still calling contractors.
- c) Stop Sign at Sydney & Gladstone – Les said he straightened it.
- d) PCC sidewalk audit – should happen next April or May.

Kingsley Landscaping – Jamie

Jamie will talk to Louisville Tree service regarding trees in the park.

Annual Picnic Updates- Andy

The ponies and petting zoo are booked. The band is booked. Morris Deli is booked for the catering. Andy will ask Nan about face painting. Picnic will be Sept. 13 at 3:00pm.

Kingsley Green Park

- a) Park book box replacement – Les made a motion to spend up to $200.00 for a book box from Amazon. Jamie seconded it. It was unanimously approved.
- b) Park benches – more discussion on replacing 2 of the park benches with 2 benches with backs and arms. They would be $1,200.00 each. Then we would need someone to assemble them.
- c) Water fountain – there was some discussion about a water fountain in the park with a bowl at the bottom for dogs. No estimates yet.
- d) Electrical outlet – Jamie fixed it.

Resident Recognition

No one this month

Commissioner's Comments

No comments.

Mayor's Comments

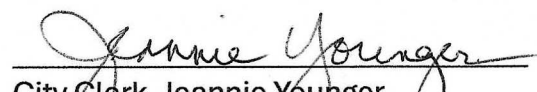

- a) Speedway pot holes – Kingsley received an email from someone complaining about pot holes at the entrance to Speedway's parking lot. Tom explained that the pot holes were not Kingsley's responsibility, but were Speedway's. Tom talked to an employee who said the Manager was on vacation. Tom will go back and try again.
- b) Resident update – 2354 Tyler Lane is for sale for $439,500.
2624 Taylorsville Road has a sale pending.
